August 2020
Newsletter

Welcome to our first mid-month newsletter where we will be keeping you up-to-date with the latest from the Picturebook Interiors office. This is the little sister of our main newsletter, focusing mainly on news updates and sometimes a little more detail on the special we have on offer. But don't worry, you will still find our colour of the month and feature articles within the main newsletter at the start of each month.

THE LATEST NEWS

With the reintroduction of Level 3 in Auckland, our office is unfortunately closed until further notice, but that should not stop us from starting off our mid-month catch ups with some great news... Therefore we would like to announce to you our new blog!

We will be releasing a new short read on the first Monday of every month, starting off with '5 Best Coffee Table Books about Design' which is now live.

You can read it here: www.picturebookinteriors.co.nz/news/39/5-best/

For our first post, we have selected books with subjects from all scopes of design - varying from interiors (of course!) to graphic design and advertising... Meaning there will be an option for everyone. We cannot wait to hear what you think!

We have decided to write it as lifestyle blog which will cover topics about interior design, but also our favourite local places to visit and opinion pieces on the latest releases in the design world. If there is something in particular you would like to read about, we would love to hear from you!
